

SUSAN DOLINER, FAHP
VICE PRESIDENT FOR PHILANTHROPY
MAINE MEDICAL CENTER
PORTLAND, MAINE

Sue is one of the nation's leading health care philanthropy professionals. Sue has led and directed philanthropic programs that have generated over $350 million. Named the prestigious Harold J. (Si) Seymour Award Recipient in 2014 by the Association for Healthcare Philanthropy, Susan was recognized for her professional expertise, commitment to advancing the philanthropy profession and strategic leadership ability.

She has built a distinguished career in philanthropy over three decades, including shaping one of Maine's most comprehensive development programs at Maine Medical Center. She oversees the entire philanthropic program for MaineHealth's largest health care provider Maine Medical Center, including The Barbara Bush Children's Hospital at Maine Medical Center.

Sue is a graduate of Bates College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in psychology and subsequent Masters in Business coursework at the Crummer School of Finance and Business. Prior to Maine Medical Center she served as Director of Development at Wheaton College in Norton, MA and Associate Director of Development at Bates College in Lewiston, ME.

Susan has served on the boards of Bates College, the Association for Healthcare Philanthropy, the Institute for Civic Leadership, Piper Shores Retirement Community, and also as a Corporator for Gorham Savings Bank. Sue resides in Cape Elizabeth, Maine.